THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

The lesson from today's gospel, is the solid foundation of our Christian religion—to love God and our neighbor. As our Lord says: "there is no other commandment greater than these." All the other commandments are expansions of these two.

The keeping of God's commandments, the prayers of thanksgiving, praise and petition which daily we offer, the attendance at Mass and other liturgical functions, these are the means God gives us of showing our love, our recognition of total dependence on him and our gratitude for all he has done and is doing for us. God does not need any of these signs of our submission and reverence and respect, but we need them, for they are the means he has given us of fulfilling his purpose in creating us—to share his eternal glory with him. To love God then, is not an obligation imposed on us by some demanding superior but a privilege granted us so that we can become worthy of the greater gifts he has in store for us.

Loving our neighbor—and in the Christian code this means all men no matter what may be their color, race or religion—is, according to our divine Lord, another most effective way of proving to God that we love him. Because of our common humanity we should be inclined to help our fellowmen, our neighbors, but the Christian law spiritualizes this natural inclination, by commanding us to help our neighbor because he is God's child. We are all fellow-children of God, members of the one family. Our heavenly Father loves each one of us and wants our salvation. If we love our common Father, we will do all we can to help his other children to attain salvation. It will earn for us God's favor.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE:

In November, we will pray for our dead. We invite parishioners to write the names of deceased family members and friends in the Book of Remembrance which you can find at the back of the church.

BOOK OF THE MONTH

How the Catholic Church Built Western Civilization by Thomas E Woods, Jr.

In his book we learn: Why modern science was born in the Catholic Church · How the Catholic Church invented the university · How Western law grew out of Church canon law, are a few examples.

True Devotion to Mary by St. Louis de Montfort

The greatest single book of Marian spirituality ever written, True Devotion to Mary, is St Louis de Montfort's classic statement on the spiritual way to Jesus Christ through the Blessed Virgin Mary.

RECOMMENDED WEBSITES

Marriages for Mary is a Catholic retreat-based marriage ministry, with its primary purpose to bring renewal or new life to all married couples.

New Advent

www.newadvent.org Parishioners should check the Encyclopedia, Summa, Fathers, Bible and Library tabs on the website. It also has several catholic links.

Code of Canon Law: http://www.vatican.va/archive/ENG1104/\_INDEX.HTM Canon law is how the Church organizes and governs herself. Canon law deals with all the legal issues - for example, rights, property issues, procedures, administration, personnel, crimes and trials. It also does some things that civil law cannot, such as laws regarding sacraments, sacred places and magisterial teachings.
