SECOND SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Today the Church celebrates the Second Sunday of Ordinary Time. Today's readings contain explicit nuptial references and are taken from Cycle C. "Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him."

The first reading is taken from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah, 62:1-5. Isaiah compares Yahweh to a young man who marries a virgin. His love transforms her. She used to be called "Forsaken". Now she has a new name, "My Delight".

The second reading is from the first Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians, 12:4-11 and teaches that God is the origin of spiritual gifts. The various graces which the members of the Church receive are a living reflection of God who, being essentially one, and so is a trinity of persons. Therefore, diversity of gifts and graces is as important as their basic unity, because all have the same divine origin and the same purpose—the common good. — Excerpted from The Navarre Bible, Corinthians

BOOK OF THE MONTH

Sayings of the Desert Fathers Translated By: Benedicta Ward SLG 'Give me a word, Father', visitors to early desert monks asked. The responses of these pioneer ascetics were remembered and in the fourth century written down in Coptic, Syriac, Greek, and later Latin. Their Sayings were collected, in this case in the alphabetical order of the monks and nuns who uttered them and read by generations of Christians as life-giving words that would help readers along the path to salvation.
