My Dear Parishioners,

It is with great joy that I celebrate with you Christmas and New Year at St. Michael's and St. Peter Celestine. The Lord is so good to us! Who could have ever imagined the Author of all life coming into our world as a little, helpless, infant? How truly humble He is. How deep His desire to be with us. God is good, indeed!

As we celebrate the Nativity of the Lord, I want to assure you of my prayers and blessings for you, and your families. May the peace of the Saviour penetrate the very depths of your being, that you may experience the wonder of His presence. May she, who held the God-Man in her arms and contemplated His divine presence as she nursed, help you to unfold the mystery of this awesome Solemnity. And, may the holy Angels, who adored the living God in the manger, intercede for you, that your hearts may be stirred to profound adoration as you come and receive the very same Lord in the Eucharist.

As another year dawns I look forward to all that the Lord has in store for our parishes. I hope that you join me in a daily prayer of surrender to our Divine Master, that His will may be fully accomplished in our parish, lives, and hearts. As Jesus pointed out in Matthew 7:21, doing the will of God is our way into Heaven. So, "Come, Lord Jesus; do not delay. We give our all to you, and put all we have into your hands. Help us to know and do your will in this new year that we may attain the eternal reward you promise to those who walk in your ways."

Let us live in the great hope of our faith!

In Christ,

Rev. Matthew Chojna
