ASCENSION OF THE LORD

This day is not about departure or disappearance. It is a celebration of the new presence Christ enjoys with the Father. According to the Letter to the Ephesians: "God has made Christ the head over all things for the Church, which is the Body of Christ, the fullness of Christ who fills all in all." Pope St. Leo describes the hope this mystery fosters within us: "Not only are we confirmed today in our possession of paradise, but in Christ, who is the head of our body, we have begun the triumphal entry into the heaven of heavens." Nevertheless, as the angel says to the disciples, we need not stand about staring into the heavens. There is a mission to accomplish, to bring all nations into the same Body which has already entered heaven through Christ who is its Head!

PENTECOST SUNDAY

After Jesus had ascended to heaven from Mt. Olivet, the apostles and disciples returned to the Holy City. They remained together in the Upper Room. Ten days had passed, it was Sunday, the seventh Sunday after the resurrection. At about nine o'clock in the morning, as they were together praying fervently, the Holy Spirit descended upon them. Note how all the great theophanies in Christ's life occurred during the course of prayer. After His baptism, for instance, when Jesus was praying the heavens opened and the Holy Spirit descended in the form of a dove; likewise, it was during prayer at night that the transfiguration took place on Tabor. Surely too it was while Mary was praying that Gabriel delivered his message, and the Holy Spirit overshadowed her. Pentecost followed precedent. The small community of Christians had prepared themselves through prayer for the coming of the Holy Spirit. The same is true at Mass, every day; through prayer we ready our souls for the advent of the Holy Spirit.

TRINITY SUNDAY

The dogma of faith which forms the object of the feast is this: There is one God and in this one God there are three Divine Persons; the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God. Yet, there are not three Gods, but one, eternal, incomprehensible God! The Father is not more God than the Son, neither is the Son more God than the Holy Spirit. The Father is the first Divine Person; the Son is the second Divine Person, begotten from the nature of the Father from eternity; the Holy Spirit is the third Divine Person, proceeding from the Father and the Son. No mortal can fully fathom this sublime truth. But we submit humbly and say: Lord, I believe, help my weak faith.

This feast, which falls on the first Sunday after Pentecost, should make us mindful that actually every Sunday is devoted to the honor of the Most Holy Trinity, that every Sunday is sanctified and consecrated to the triune God. Sunday after Sunday we should recall in a spirit of gratitude the gifts which the Blessed Trinity is bestowing upon us. The Father created and predestined us; on the first day of the week He began the work of creation. The Son redeemed us; Sunday is the "Day of the Lord," the day of His resurrection. The Holy Spirit sanctified us, made us His temple; on Sunday, the Holy Spirit descended upon the infant Church. Sunday, therefore, is the day of the Most Holy Trinity.
